

Taught by God
10.10.10.10 and refrain

Refrain:

We are wrought by God, sought by God, taught by God.
We are caught by God, bought by God, taught by God. . . .
all taught by God.

Made in God's likeness, reflecting God's face.
God's law on our hearts is written in grace.
God seeks to turn us from evil and sin.
As sheep to their fold, we all enter in.

Angels to keep us through every new day.
Fishing for seekers we follow Christ's way.
Bought with a price -- Christ paid dearly for all.
Now, free to serve God, we answer Love's call.

Healers and prophets, we see face to face
our Teacher, one Mind, in every place.
Our mission, healing both sin and disease
throughout the wide world, and great is our peace.
