

In Every Age We Sing God's Praise

L. M.

In every age we sing God's praise.
With loud new songs our voices raise.
We play with skill and do rejoice
That God has given each a voice.

For music weds the mind and soul,
Which both are needed to be whole.
Heads may be chill and hearts on fire.
United must they all inspire.

Now let us sing our words of love,
Joy, peace, and hope to God above.
And let our song speak openly
Of God's most gracious majesty.
