

In God Alone We Live and Move

L. M.

In God alone we live and move,
Our very being His does prove.
And by Her gift of perfect grace,
We learn Love's answer face to face.

As God cannot be found in stone
Nor is His being male alone.
For She is One and is divine,
And will have all creation shine.

For in God's image were all made
Both male and female as He bade.
And as an eagle stirs her nest
So She leads on, and all are blest.

Dear sister, then come take my hand
And brother too, break ev'ry band
Dividing us by sex or race,
That we may hate with love replace.

For black or white, or rich or poor,
Female or male, one thing is sure:
Our God loves each and ev'ry one
And in our love, God's will is done.
