

Praying Together, May We Be

L. M.

Praying together, may we be ready to live in harmony.
As Jesus prayed for our whole race,
let us believe God's Word of grace.

While Christ was praying for his friends,
he knew that all on Love depends.
“All mine are yours, and yours are mine;”
and none are lost, in God's design.

“I come to you,” our Savior said.
To God, who raised him from the dead.
“Protect them from the evil one,”
Your children, given to your Son.

“I do not pray for these alone.”
Believing, let our love be known
by near and far, your people too,
“that they may all be one in you.”
